The president opened the meeting at 7:45 p.m. The secretary read the minutes of the January 11th meeting and communications received. The treasurer reported a treasury balance of $223.75. John Edwards suggested that an audit be made of the treasury records. After Edwards put the suggestion in the form of a motion, seconded by L. Linderman, the motion was carried. Rex Thomas, speaking for himself and all the officers, expressed appreciation for the privilege of serving the Club during the next year. He outlined some goals of the Club, one of the most important of which is increasing attendance and membership. He also mentioned the possibility of more station W9REG activity, long-range plans for what members would like to have in the group station in the years to come, perhaps teletype, single sideband, etc., and participation of all members in group projects. He suggested that the Club might present programs for groups, radio, TV, etc. He appointed the following committees:

Field Day -- Herb Timberlake, chairman
Civil Defense -- Jim Baker to work with Glen Rogers
Program -- Lew Linderman, Chairman
Bob Walgreen
Al Lewis
Publicity -- Dorothy and Mary Gross
Activities -- Ray Straub, Chairman
Chris Weaver, Joe Hurley, Ex-Officio – John Edwards

This committee will be responsible for getting members to participate in Club projects.

No membership committee appointed.
