TARA Mtg., 6-12-01

Mtg. Called to order at 7:32 by Steve Van Frank. Treasurer was not present so the detailed treasurer' report was not read. Two small corrections were made in the minutes of the last meeting. FD auction totalled $272.50. $24 is still owed by the membership. At Dayton t $1542.11 was spent for a new ICOM 746 including a new wall clock, cable, and connectors, etc. Mike Brown reports a change of call sign from KB9WFN to K9MAB. Jack Freeman says he has a letter in hand giving permission to have FD at the Veteran's home grounds.

Hamfest info: We have ARRL approval as of May 7. The hours will be 8am to 2 pm., with setups early Sat. pm and Sun. am. VE tests will be at 12 noon Sun.

Our next club meeting will be on Sat. July 21 at the Indpls FAA Flite Ctr. Be there at 10 am. Let Jack Freeman know if you are going as he needs a list of names of attendees.

Members are working at building the AC distribution cables for FD. WB9VAL won the closing prize but was not present to accept it.

Mtg. Closed at 8pm. FD mtg was then opened and FD topics were discussed.

This meeting was called to order at 7:34 and declared a non-meeting as we did not have a quorum present. Several things were discussed, mostly having to do with FD. We had the most QSO's since 1978, (see the enclosed summary for FD). Bruce signed the report to be sent in to ARRL before the end of the month. The "meeting" closed at 7:50.

A little old lady came up to a train announcer at Grand Central Station and said, "Young man, where do I catch my train?"

"That depends on where you're going," the worker responded pleasantly.

"You're very impertinent!" snapped the woman. "What business is it of yours where I'm going? But if you must know, I'm off to Boston!"

The announcer obligingly picked up her three bags, found her a seat on the Boston coach and put the bags on the rack above her head. As he descended on the platform, the woman leaned out the window and shouted at him, "I guess I fooled you, you rude young man! I'm really going to Buffalo!"
